

The poster features a vibrant orange and yellow background with a dark, jagged silhouette of a city skyline. In the upper left, a glowing jack-o'-lantern is visible. A witch on a broom and several bats are flying across the top. The Portland Hotel logo, consisting of the word 'Portland' above a stylized blue and white wave with a sailboat, and the word 'HOTEL' below it, is centered in a white rectangular box. The words 'HALLOWEEN PARTY' are written in large, white, hand-drawn letters across the middle of the skyline silhouette. At the bottom, a red banner contains the event date and time, and a list of activities. A DJ silhouette with headphones is in the bottom right corner.
